"Biographie de l'auteur Nadia Foley lives in the woodsy small town of Hillsborough, North Carolina with her husband, their two monsters who claim to be children (but that is still to be determined), and a beast pup who prowls his kingdom daily to vanquish the evil squirrels from his realm. As a military brat, Nadia has lived in the US, Germany and France, and traveled to many different places, spending many a summer fighting off killer wasps and suicidal doormice in the south of France. Upon graduating high school, she set aside the glamorous globetrotting military lifestyle and now lives quietly, surrounded by nothing but nature and her endless imagination.
