Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurWhat happens when dementia, depressed dipsomania and downright dottiness decide to uproot from the UK and move to France together.Worried by the lack of care for her frail elderly mother in the UK, Tottie decides a new life elsewhere might be the answer. Sell the Pig is a travel tale with a twist, describing with alternating humour and poignancy how a somewhat dysfunctional family decide to uproot and move to rural France. Eccentric Tottie, her manic depressive alcoholic brother, their mother, whose dementia has given her an obsession with bums, and an equally elderly border collie, decide France's Auvergne is to be their new home. This is the story of what led them to make that journey.This is a brand new edition with additional previously unseen content.Prsentation de l'diteurWhat happens when dementia, depressed dipsomania and downright dottiness decide to uproot from the UK and move to France together. Worried by the lack of care for her frail elderly mother in the UK, Tottie decides a new life elsewhere might be the answer. Sell the Pig is a travel tale with a twist, describing with alternating humour and poignancy how a somewhat dysfunctional family decide to uproot and move to rural France. Eccentric Tottie, her manic depressive alcoholic brother, their mother, whose dementia has given her an obsession with bums, and an equally elderly border collie, decide France's Auvergne is to be their new home. This is the story of what led them to make that journey. This is a brand new edition with additional previously unseen content.

Biographie de l'auteur Tottie Limejuice is the pen-name of freelance copywriter and copy editor Lesley Tither, who lives in the Auvergne region of central France. "Sell the Pig" is the first in a series of books describing how Lesley, a former journalist living in the UK, decided to make the move to France to start a new life, taking with her an 89-year-old mother suffering from vascular dementia. The story continues in two further books, 'Is That Billinge Lump?' and 'Mother, Was It Worth It?' Lesley's interests centre around nature and wildlife and encompass dogs, wild camping and organic gardening. Want to chat with Tottie Limejuice? You'll find a Tottie Limejuice Chat Group on Facebook, with lots of photos of the Auvergne.
